

From the Grammar to the Harbour

From the Grammar to the harbour,
Is there thing that reminds you of a flower?
The Marine Gardens in bloom, the Pirate Park, have such colour and grace at this time of year.

And the Castle is something to behold with its cart at the gate bursting with pride.
What about those bees, busy collecting the honey to make my ice-cream. Cheers!

By: Justin Irwin

P6 Sunnylands